

We include from the valid SMyS bylaws some provisions (Article III, paragraphs 1 to 4):

1. Membership in SMyS is voluntary. The society is open to any individual, Slovak citizen, as well as legal entities with registered seat in Slovakia, which is connected with the myeloma disease, and which is interested in becoming member of the society and agrees with its bylaws and goals. Citizens of other countries, and legal entities with seat in other countries may also be members.
2. Creation of membership: The person interested in becoming member of the society sends to the address of the society a written application for membership, addressed to the Board (art. IV, point 2 of these bylaws), in which he/she includes his/her first name, last name, date of birth, permanent address, in the case of a legal entity name or business name, identification number and address of the seat, together with the original or certified copy of the current extract from the register in which it is registered. The application is, after receipt, considered by the Board at its next meeting. Membership begins on the day of the decision of the Board to accept the member of the society.
3. Each SMyS member has these rights:
 - actively to participate in SMyS activities and enjoy all advantages related to membership in SMyS,
 - freely to express him/herself, to submit to the society organs suggestions and proposals for improvement of the work and activity of SMyS, to submit complaints, and ask for its opinion,
 - to ask for and receive information related to the goals and activities of the society, as well as information about the activities and decisions of the society's organs,
 - to make use of the knowledge and information gained in the society,
 - to propose candidates for the organs of SMyS, elect them and in the case of an individual, to be elected,
 - each member of the society has one vote when voting in the organs of the society.
4. Each member has these obligations:
 - to adhere to the bylaws of SMyS,
 - to comply with the decisions of the organs of SMyS,
 - to pay membership fees, should the General assembly decide on such an obligation,
 - to protect and enhance the property of the society.
